

A GLOBAL COMMUNITY OF
INTERDISCIPLINARY PEACEBUILDERS

NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

CALL FOR APN KOSOVO 2026

Forum for Civic Initiatives (FIQ), in partnership with Innovations in Peacebuilding (IP) and AP Strategies, is launching the Applied Peace Network (APN) in Kosovo, an intensive and interactive program designed to empower emerging peacebuilders with the skills, knowledge, and networks needed to address real-world challenges.

OUR MISSION

The Applied Peace Network (APN) equips and inspires the next generation of leaders by providing them with the knowledge, skills, and networks needed to drive innovative peacebuilding initiatives. The seminar cultivates interdisciplinary collaboration, fosters creative solutions to global challenges, and encourages participants to take active roles in peacebuilding. APN is a global network, bringing together participants and alumni from across the globe.

Program dates: 6 – 17 April 2026

Applications close by March 20

A GLOBAL COMMUNITY OF
INTERDISCIPLINARY PEACEBUILDERS

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT

The APN Seminar is an immersive program that focuses on the intersection of peace and technology. It is designed to:

- Bridge academic scholarship and real-world practice in peacebuilding.
- Expose participants to leading experts, institutions, and hands-on experiences in diplomacy and conflict resolution.
- Provide participants with the skills and networks necessary to develop innovative, sustainable peace solutions grounded in their local context or case study.

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

The APN program welcomes motivated individuals from diverse academic and professional backgrounds interested in peacebuilding, social innovation, and community impact.

Applicants should apply via Google Forms. Selection is made by the Global Advisory Committee, and participants must be available for the Q1 Alumni Virtual Reunion on March 28.
